Change of Plan

Pakistan v England (1968-69)

After their proposed South African tour was cancelled in the aftermath of the selection of Basil D'Oliveira, England hoped for a quiet time on the replacement tour to Pakistan.

Instead it was played out before a backdrop of civil unrest, with politicians staging showy appearances at some matches. A large mob invaded the ground on the third day of the third test, and the tourists decided enough was enough and left the country. Alan Knott was on 96 when the match was cancelled.
